Beni-khiar Secondary School	Mrs Hamdoun	2008/ 2009
Name:	Number:	9th Form Class: .....

TEST N° 5

I/ LANGUAGE:

1) Put the verbs in the right "tense" or "form": (3)

Dear Peter,

Do you by any chance (to know) ..... where Bob is ? I'd like (finding) ..... out because I (just / hear) ..... of a job that would exactly suit him, but if he doesn't apply fairly soon of course, he (not get) ..... it.

I last (to see) ..... him about a month ago. He said he was going to France for a holiday and promised to send a post card with his French address as soon as he found a place to stay. But I (to hear) ..... nothing since then.

If you know his address, I would be grateful if you would phone me.

Yours

Jack

2) Fill in the blanks with words from the list: (4)

In these days of fast transportation, airplane is often considered as the only way to make a journey of 200 miles or more. ....., even in the United States travelling ..... train remains a favourite alternative for many people. There are many ..... for choosing this slower means of transport. In some cases It's more ..... and economical. It can be more leisurely, comfortable and pleasant, the traveler may ..... the varied scenery along the route while relaxing or moving about with a ..... not possible on a plane. ..... the greatest advantage of train travel is the opportunity to exchange views through ..... with other passengers.

freedom / reasons / on / convenient / enjoy / chatting / by / costly / However / perhaps

3) Match the following utterances with the appropriate functions : (2)

Surprise	Request	uncertainty	apology	Suggestion
.....	.....	.....	.....	.....

Waiter: would you like to order now ?
Mike: I think I'd like to have soup to start with. Then I'll have roast chicken with some vegetables.
Waiter: (1) I'm sorry Sir, the chicken is all gone.
Mike: Ok, all right. What do you recommend ?
Waiter: (2) Why don't you have fried fish ?
Mike: Fine. I'll have fish with green beans and carrots.
After a while.
Mike: (3) How delicious !
Waiter: I'm glad you enjoyed it. Would you like a sweet ?
Mike : No, thank you. (4) Could I have the bill, please ?
Waiter: Certainly Sir.

4) Match sentence parts from column A with the appropriate ones from column B to get meaningful sentences: (3 marks)

A	B	C
1) I don't mind 2) It sounds interesting 3) I regret 4) shall we 5) There is no doubt 6) she is keen on	a- he will be late for the meeting . b- go to the circus ? c- window shopping d- collecting stamps . e- to go to galleries . f- windsurf . g- smacking my sister .	1→ ..... 2→ ..... 3→ ..... 4→ ..... 5→ ..... 6→ .....

II- LISTENING: (8 marks)

1) Complete the following statement with words from the listening passage (1)

Mary is talking about ..... and ..... she practices them.

2) Complete the followings table about Mary's favourite1 (1.5)

TV channel	Sport	Film
.....	.....	.....

3) Complete the following statements with the right information: (1.5)

Mary ..... everyday.
Mary ..... twice a year.
Mary ..... occasionally.

4) Tick the right alternative: (1)

Mary is interested in watching:
- ☐ TV serials
- ☐ the news
- ☐ cartoons
- ☐ sporting events

5) Correct the following statements: (1)

- Mary is fond of action films.

.....

- Mari likes going to the cinema better than renting movies.

.....

Spelling: (1)

My ..... book is "Great Expectation" because there are interesting ..... .

Pronounciation: (1)

Are the following sounds "similar" or "different" ?

golf / purposes : .....

occasionally / skating : .....